

The Congressional Office of Compliance

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS SERIES

Dr. Bonnie Morris

“From Suffrage to Title IX: Empowering Women in America”

Dr. Bonnie Morris, professor of Women's Studies at George Washington University, will be speaking during Women's History Month on the history of women's equality legislation in America and its implications for workplace rights today. Dr. Morris is the author of eight books including, Women and Western Civilization and Women and War. C-Span Book TV recently profiled and interviewed Dr. Morris on her book “Women's History for Beginners.”

This presentation is one of a series of lectures offered by the Office of Compliance as part of its Distinguished Speakers Series. Light refreshments will be served, but feel free to bring your lunch as well.

Friday, March 21st

12:00 - 1:00pm

1310 Longworth House Office Building
Committee on House Administration Hearing Room

RSVP to the below email address by March 14, 2014, as space is limited:
speakerseries@compliance.gov

For additional information, including upcoming programs, please visit our website at www.compliance.gov, or contact Scott Mulligan at 202-724-9270.